

Courage on Canvas

Courage on Canvas is a yearly exhibition of artwork created by the boys and young men of Life Pieces To Masterpieces - a program helping African-American boys and young men turn their challenges into opportunities for self-reliance, resilience, and success. This is a free event for people to come learn more about LPTM and our work, and to view our Apprentices' latest masterpieces. Organizations can support our boys and young men with the purchase of one of our event sponsorship packages.
